Market Overview

Rental activity in the Hudson Valley market is highly concentrated to two counties, Ulster County and Greene County.

These counties collectively represent over 50% of total Gross Booking Value or "GBV" (total rental amount), at a combined $152.0m value in 2021 through November 1st. While both counties have continued to grow YoY in 2021, other smaller markets have seen higher growth percentages, like Sullivan and Delaware Counties, +74% and +63%, respectively.

*2021 data as of 11/1/2021

Occupancy ranges from ~20% to ~65%, varying across months and counties. Properties in Ulster, Columbia, and Delaware Counties have the highest annual occupancy, with peak occupancy above 60% in summer months. Properties in Greene County, however, have relatively higher occupancy in the winter months due to their proximity to ski mountains.

New Paltz	Ulster County	$5.6
Rhinebeck	Dutchess County	$4.8
Tannersville	Greene County	$4.8
Catskill	Greene County	$4.7

Unsurprisingly, most of the highest revenue cities are in Ulster and Greene Counties.

Rental Market Overview

While Saugerties and Woodstock have been consistent performers over the past few years, Phoenicia has shown the most growth YoY. Average nightly rates for top performing cities are ~$400 - $500 and average revenue per booking is ~$1,500 - $2,000.

Rental Market Overview

Greene County

Greene County booking activity is still growing following a material spike in 2020 where GBV increased 80% YoY. The two major ski towns, Hunter and Windham, represent ~40% of total revenue in the county. Other cities within 30 minute drive times to these two mountains still attract a good amount of renter demand.

Rental Market Overview

Delaware County

Bookings in Delaware County are spread out across multiple cities with 10 sub-markets that have GBV over $1.0m. Delaware County is a relatively nascent market. Its major towns have grown 80%+ YoY in 2021 (through November) but most towns have less than 50 active listings. Continued revenue growth and low supply highlight unmet demand in the market, making it a market to watch.

Rental Market Overview

Putnam County

GBV in Putnam County has been relatively flat from 2019 to 2021, with GBV growing less than 10% YoY each year, amidst the more widespread boom in demand across Hudson Valley. Top performing cities of Cold Spring and Garrison have average nightly rates of ~$700 per night. Average revenue per booking in Putnam County is the highest across all counties at $2,397.

Rental Market Overview

Albany County

Although it is one of the smaller markets in Hudson Valley, Albany County has grown significantly in 2021, led by Medusa, which has grown over 100% over the last two years. In Medusa, the average nightly rate is over $600, significantly above other top performing cities in this county, which average nightly rates around $200 - $300, however, it is important to note that there is fewer than 10 active properties in that submarket.

Rental Market Overview

Rensselaer County

Rensselaer County is the smallest Hudson Valley market by both GBV ($1.8m) and number of active properties (77). It is the only county with fewer than 100 actively marketed rental properties. GBV is less than $500k and the highest revenue grossing sub-market, Stephentown, decreased by 36% YoY in 2021.
